ATHLETICS

Wildcats Battle to a Tie, Lose to No. 7-Ranked Team

The women's soccer team (7-4-1, 0-2-1 conference) tied Salt Lake Community College Friday 1-1 in a close conference match that could have gone either way. The Wildcats then fell 6-1 on Sunday to Laramie County Community College, the seventh-ranked National Junior College Athletic Association team in the nation, in a non-conference contest.

WNC will travel to Coeur d'Alene this week to play North Idaho College on Friday at 4 p.m. and Great Falls University Saturday at 10 a.m. The Wildcats' regular season ends with a visit to Corsicana, Texas, to face Cisco College on October 20 and Navarro College on October 21.

Academic Skills Center Features "Traveling Tutors"

To reach out to students and make them aware of their services, the WNC Academic Skills Center is stationing their tutors in prominent areas around the Carson City campus. These "traveling tutors" can make appointments, lead tours, or even tutor "on the spot." Featured tutors include Mariela Solis, a new tutor who is fluent in Spanish and is able to tutor in several subjects, and Liz Risenden, an experienced tutor who epitomizes the knowledge available at the tutoring center.
